

St Mary's Live Lessons Protocol

- All pupils are expected to participate in live lessons
- Lessons will take place during timetabled lesson times
- Log into each live lesson on time
- Codes for each class will be available on SMHW and will not change
- Find a quiet room preferably downstairs (not in a bedroom) and have books, notes, pens and paper to hand
- Have your cameras on and microphones off
- Dress appropriately for live lessons – no PJs or dressing gowns
- A register will be downloaded for every lesson

St Mary's Live Lessons Protocol

Students MUST NOT:

- Use codes to attend other lessons
- Log into the lesson earlier than the scheduled start time
- Misuse the chat facility
- Take screen shots, photos or videos of lessons taking place

Behaviour expectations

- If a student behaves in a way that does not follow the guidance, or the school behaviour code, they will be removed from the lesson
- Any misbehaviour will be logged on SIMS followed by a phone call home - All lessons will be recorded
- Usual school behaviour and ICT code of conduct applies to every live lesson
